ARRIVAL DATE:

The purpose of the National Organization of Alternative Programs (NOAP), is to provide a forum for education and exchange of ideas and information among state nursing alternative programs, to develop common objectives and goals, to develop standards, to enhance awareness of issues related to nurses and impairment, to provide advocacy for nurses and their health issues at local, state, and national levels, and to assist state alternative programs in their quest to protect the public

The NOAP 2012 Educational Conference will be on March 14-17, 2012 in Nashville, TN, and you are invited to sponsor and/or exhibit at the Conference.

This conference will focus on important issues affecting alternative programs today.

Sponsors and exhibitors will have the opportunity to meet and discuss your company's attributes with healthcare professional monitoring program executive directors and staff from across the US along with representatives from state regulatory boards about their facilities and services.

In each of the preceding years, NOAP conferences have received enthusiastic reviews for the quality of speakers and programming. The expectation for 2012 is to be a just, if not more, robust.
